

Rhonda Sherwood

Vancouver Public Library Board Trustee (since 2016)

Rhonda Sherwood brings 29 years of wealth advisement and passion to her financial advising practice. Rhonda's career began in 1989 at a bank owned firm. Over the years she advanced into many different roles with the last 17 years being employed as a Wealth Advisor at a full-service brokerage arm.

Rhonda graduated from Simon Fraser University with her Liberal Arts diploma, and has additionally earned her Certified Financial Planner®, Financial Management Advisor and Responsible Investment Advisor designations. In addition, she is securities and insurance licensed.

Rhonda is a passionate advocate within her industry promoting professionalism and ethics. She is actively involved with the Financial Planning Standards Council's 'Public Policy Ambassador Program' and sits on their 'Standards Panel'. Additionally, she is on the board of an industry publication 'Advisors Edge' and the 'Financial Services Advisory Council' at Douglas College. Rhonda also mentors young adults and women through different associations.

Rhonda believes in the importance of giving back to her community. She is a trustee for the Vancouver Public Library and Vice Chair for the City of Vancouver's 'Women's Advisory Committee'. She also cares deeply about the rights and well-being of animals, practicing veganism and vegetarianism for 27 years and devoting her time and resources to many animal advocacy projects. Rhonda was an active volunteer for many years at the BCSPCA as a Community Council member and chair and developing and managing the volunteer program.

At the Vancouver Public Library Board, Rhonda sits on the Services, Finance & Human Resources Committee and serves as the trustee liaison to four library branches.
